Photographer

Je suis passionnée par la photographie depuis beaucoup d'années. C'est mon hobby qui me calme, qui m'inspire et qui me rend heureuse.

Je cherche les sujets pour mes photos surtout dans la nature et la vie des gens. Mes photos naissent pendant mes voyages, mes randonnées ou simplement quand je me promène dans un parc, quand je suis à côté de la mer, dans les montagnes, dans la rue.

Je trouve inspiration en photographiant les paysages et les moments différents des animaux, des oiseaux et des gens. J'adore montrer les couleurs de la nature car les couleurs en nature sont exceptionnelles. Par contre, je montre les gens en noir et blanc, ce qui m'aide de mieux exposer l'humeur et l'exceptionnalité du moment de la vie.

Photographer

I discovered an interest in photography already in my childhood, as I watched my father taking pictures and developing film photographs. It was fascinating, even magical to see how a blank sheet of paper turns into an image. Seeing my interest, my father bought me a simple film camera and I started taking pictures of my friends and developing photographs myself by imitating my father.

I am interested in a variety in genres, such as landscape, travel, street, macro, detail and portrait photography.

Painter, printmaker

For me art is both a pathway to my inner world and a means to share my feelings, dreams, innate tendencies, fantasies and desires with the outside world. In the creative process I first observe the unique world of images, sounds, forms and colors. The outer world, as manifested through music, surroundings, situations and encounters, is reflected in the abstracted form through my paintings.

Presently I find nature in all its forms, shapes and colors as the ultimate source of my inspiration. I try to convey through my paintings the ideas of immensity, beauty, serenity, mystery, light and darkness.

I experiment with a variety of techniques and artistic media, such as oil, acrylic and water-color paints, Chinese ink and mixed media.
